New lower price. A solid home that's a solid choice! With a limited single family home market under $600k in Key West, this property will surely catch your eye. In the New Town area of Key West, 3747 Cindy Ave. offers a stable neighborhood of mostly primary home residences and a location conducive to day to day living in the Southernmost City. The mid-century Florida style home sits on a larger corner lot that's fenced and perfect for the addition of a swimming pool, for your 4 legged friends or just to play. Featuring 2 BRs and 1 BA, many modern upgrades have been made in recent years. The galley kitchen has granite counters, and throughout the home are striking handmade Cuban tiles from the period of construction. There is off street parking, a huge 14 x 20 covered porch and 2 substantial sheds for all your toys and tools. Look no further for your perfect fit in a tight housing market. Now only $549,000!
